Winston Churchill Ephemera

101. Large colour print of charge of 21st Lancers at Omdurman Here is a large colourful print of the Battle of Omdurman, 2nd September 1898, the decisive final engagement of The River War, in which Winston Churchill took part in the charge of the 21st Lancers, which is depicted in this print. No publisher noted, but this is an old print done by chromo-lithography using a number of different colour inks including a metallic gold. Most definitely not a modern four colour print. Image size is about 28 x 16.5 inches, mount is 32 x 22 ins., excellent condition. $300.00

1 Churchill in large 1910 Irish cartoon

This was published as a supplement to The Weekly Freeman, National Press, and Irish Agriculturist, on 30th April, 1910. The caption has Churchill demanding papers which are public property. It reprints part of his speech in the House on 21st April, see p. 1563 in vol. II of The Complete Speeches. Size 16 x 11 inches, drawings in colour, paper browned, several tears. $75.00

2 Churchill in large 1912 Irish cartoon

This was published as a supplement to The Weekly Freeman, National Press, and Irish Agriculturist, on 3rd february 1912. The caption quotes Churchill's letter to Lord Londonderry, regarding Churchill's proposed speech in Belfast and the violence likely to result. Size 16 x 11 inches, drawings in colour, some chips on top edges, very clean and bright $75.00

3 OUR SKIPPER, colour portrait mounted w stand up strut

This wartime piece published by Photochrom Ltd has a colour portrait mounted on heavy card with a strut on the rear, allowing it to stand on a desk. Size 5.5 x 8.5 inches. These desktop displays are always in demand. $80.00

6 Large colour poster of Churchill in a blitz scene

This large poster measures 40 x 24 inches. It shows a grim Churchill inspecting a bombed area in London during the Blitz of 1940. Produced in 1974 by Pictorial Education Quarterly. $20.00

7 Churchill at the despatch box in colour

This print is mounted on card and meant for hanging by a loop of blue cord. Based on the painting by John Leigh-Pemberton, it shows Churchill delivering his "This was their Finest Hour" spech on 18 June 1940, with the Mace in the foreground. 11.5 x 10.5 inches. $40.00

8 Wartime print of Churchill on board

This colour print shows Churchill striding with cane, tank, battleships and planes in background. No indication of maker, but says "The Rt. Hon. Winston S. Churchill, C.H." along bottom edge. 7.5 x 12 inches. Prior owner has written "Died jan 29th 1965" in LR corner. Includes cord for hanging. $60.00

9 1963 Churchill Paintings Calendar

This calendar was published by Hallmark who had reproduction rightst at the time for a selection of Churchill's paintings. Each of the 12 months has a different painting in colour with somem background details and a Churchill quote with signature. The front cover and mailing envelope feature Palladian Bridge. Fine condition in slightly worn original envelope. $75.00

4 Original artists sketch of WW2 dustwrapper

The original artwork for the dustwrapper of the one volume abridged edition of THE SECOND WORLD WAR. This is the rough layout done by the artist from which the final design evolved. the illustration shows this artwork alongside the finished product. Painted in tempera paints on light card, the design shows only the front cover and spine. 8.5 inches high. This comes from the estate of the artist. Clearly this is a one-of-a-kind item. $400.00

5 War in Pictures, set of 6 in various languages.

This finely printed propaganda magazine published by the Ministry of Information, London. here are 6 different issues, each in a different language: Arabic, English, French, Portuguese, Swahili & Yoruba. Most of these were distributed abroad at the time, so the survival rate is very low. Churchill is on the cover of issue 49 in Arabic. Scarce. $150.00

10 Wartime darts game w Hitler Churchill Chamberlain and others

This paper dart board featured most of the 1939-40 personalities of both sides, but Hitler's big mouth was the bull's eye. About 16 inches square with some portions worn through from use. Authentic wartime propaganda. $55.00

11 Churchill full page ad in 1941 Dutch magazine Wereldnieuws
 This news magazine published in the Dutch East Indies, 8 March, 1941. Holland is now Nazi occupied, but it is 9 months before the Japanese invade the Dutch east Indies. Lovely full page ad of Churchill with cigar, text in Dutch "Mundi Victor door Churchill hoogelijk gevergd". $20.00

12 VICTORIE, 1941 Nazi paper in Dutch
 This 12 page tabloid size newspaper dated August 1914 is full of Nazi propaganda. The front page is a large cartoon of a frightened Churchill overtaking a running rabbit as he flees Crete, Dunkirk, and etc. Inside are lots of photos showing the slums of USA and the heaven on earth of National Socialism. Back page has more cartoons with several featuring Churchill and Roosevelt. paper browned, slight edge wear. $20.00

13 Poster for final volume of Official Biography
 This 12 x 16 inch poster advertises a talk by Martin Gilbert in 1988 on volume VIII Never Despair, to be given at Blackwell's in Oxford. Although we didn't know each other at the time, Wybrow and I were both present at the event. $10.00

14 1942 Nazi magazine w Churchill cartoon.
 This is the 21 June 42 issue of Kladderatsch, a German political satire magazine. The centrespread features a big cartoon of Churchill and Roosevelt as good pals with Russians, set against the previous condemnation of the Russians in a Punch cartoon of 1940. Size of centrespread is 18 x13 inches. $6.00

15 large photo of WSC and party in surf jamaica 1953
 This photograph is 14.5 x 10 inches, inscribed on the back to Anna & Michael (Wybrow) from Eddie Murray, Churchill's bodyguard. It shows the Churchill party in the surf at Ocho Rios, Jamaica. Written in white on the margin are the names- Liz Gilliatt, Jo Sturdee, Christopher, Sarah, Mary, Lady C, WSC. This was a vacation after Churchill's visit to USA. $100.00

16 TLS from Fred Woods re error in Bibliography
 This 1965 letter from Fred Woods to collector James Gleichert thanking him for pointing out than an article listed in the Bibliography was in fact by the other Winston Churchill. This no doubt refers to C59 which was corrected in the second edition. $20.00

17 4 pp leaflet for Churchill speech 1900
 This is a 4 page leaflet promoting a speech to be made at Guildhall, Cambridge, on 2nd November, 1900. Topic was the Boer war and entitled "The war as I saw it". Page 2 has a brief bio of young Churchill, page 3 a synopsis of the lecture, and the rear has a photo of Churchill in Durban after his escape. I have seen these type leaflets offered at £750.00 ($1200.00) in London. Neatly torn down the fold so in 2 pieces. $400.00

18 An English Oak, poem mounted with secretarial letter
 This is a poem about Churchill entitled AN ENGLISH OAK, written by Herbert Greene. A printed copy is mounted alongside a letter from Chartwell with secretarial signature thanking the writer for his poem and noting the death of his father Graham Greene, an old Admiralty colleague, not the writer. The pair mounted on card, ready for framing. $125.00

19 1908 portrait of Churchill
 Issued as a supplement with July 1908 issue of THE BOOKMAN, this separate plate is a dark grey loose page with a detailed halftone photo of a young ( in 1908 there was no other) Winston Churchill seated with hands clasped and wearing bow tie. Overall size 8 x 12 inches. Fine condition $85.00

20 4 pp leaflet of 1907 Free Trade address by Churchill
 This leaflet advertises a meeting of the North-West Manchester Liberal Association on Feb 4, 1907, at which Churchill would give an address. the text can be found in RRJ vol I p 709-718. The interior of the leaflet prints patriotic songs to be sung at the meeting. $230.00

21 The Cinque Ports and Their Lords Warden
 This 28 pp booklet in card covers lists all the Lords warden and names the 5 ports, together with poems about these and related towns by Edward Body, whose middle name could be No. $5.00

26 Westerham Churchill Centenary 1974
 This 24 page booklet describes the various festivities in westerham for the celebration of the Churchill centenary in 1974. List of events, background on local organisations, letter from Clementine, places of interest. Cover in red and black. Crisp unworn, small brown stain on rear cover. $12.00

22 1945 Christmas card with Churchill photo
 The card from The Abbey, North Berwick features a picture of Churchill speaking at Linlithgow in June 1945. Signed by the sender, who I suspect may be standing next to Churchill. $10.00

27 A Churchill keepsake- ltd. edition 1 of 350
 This tiny 3 inch square booklet was published by the Peacock press of Berkely, CA in 1967 in an edition of 350. It has 12 pages plus blue card covers. Inside is a mint 5 cent US Churchill stamp and several pages of text publishing Churchill's comments on writing a book. First one of these I have seen. $25.00

23 Polish Meeting at Westminster cathedral hall 1944
 This document is 37 pages, duplicated on foolscap paper, and reports a speech made by Dr. Tadeusz Bielecki on May 23, 1944. This speech has much criticism of Churchill's recently announced position to recognize Soviet "influence" over certain parts of eastern Poland. Wybrow paid £15.00 for this in 1983, re-offered to you 20 years later at the same price. $24.00

28 How and When the war Could Have been Prevented
 An obscure publication of 48 pages, published in 1923, its purpose being to answer Churchill's question in THE WORLD CRISIS asking if the war could have been prevented. the author, A.F. Campbell seems to feel strongly that the answer is yes, and presents his case with much documentation. Interesting and scarce, privately published, pale blue wraps. $30.00

24 1941 Churchill Christmas card
 This printed Christmas card features a photo of Churchill "at the microphone" on front, usual printed greetings inside, signed and dated Christmas 1941. The right hand edges are tinted red and blue, a brown stain on one corner. Lovely genuine wartime item. $35.00

29 Royal Academy of arts exhibition 1952
 This small book of 144 pages in pale blue card covers lists all the paintings displayed at the annual exhibition at the Royal Academy of Arts for 1947. Included is the listing of four Churchill paintings on display. $6.00

25 Master Churchill speaks at Gray's Inn banquet
 This Silver Jubilee number of GRAYA, the magazine for members of Gray's Inn (one of the ancient inns of court in London) reports on the House Dinner held on 13th June 1952 to fete two honorary masters- Churchill and Menzies, with a full report of the proceedings including toasts, introductory speeches and remarks by Churchill. This is an important document as this speech is not published in The Complete Speeches, or anywhere else that I can trace. $100.00

30 STOP HITLER NOW poster
 This poster from 1940 encourages Americans to donate weapons and binoculars for civil defense purposes in England. Printed in red and dark blue on heavy white card, size 14 x 11 inches. $30.00

31 V for VICTORY Paint Book with Churchill message
 This is a children's colouring book, with flags of the various Allied nations to be coloured in. The inside cover reprints Churchill's message "Do not despair brave Norwegians...". Front cover has all the flags in colour and a big V. Published by Tuck, clearly a wartime item. Unused, so get your crayons out. $24.00

36 stack of Churchill speeches from Pictorial History of the War
 Hutchinson's Pictorial History of the War was a massive multi-volume work with thousands of illustrations. Initially published in weekly parts, and later bound, it published details of many of Churchill's speeches as they were made. here is a pile of cuttings from this work with a number of such speeches. hardly a rare collectible, still a good read with lots of relevant photos. $6.00

32 THE SKIPPER, cardboard cutout of Churchill
 A wartime cut-out figure of The Skipper mounted on cardboard with strut so it stands up. 9.5 inches high. Fine bright condition. From Photochrom Ltd. $60.00

37 Formal portrait display poster
 This formal portrait of Churchill from the studio of J. Russel & Sons, printed on card and published by Raphael Tuck & Sons Ltd. Excellent detail, probably printed by gravure. 7.75 x 9.25 inches. Fine condition. $80.00

33 Full programme for musical WINNIE
 This musical was staged in the 1980's at the Victoria Palace Theatre in London. It starred Robert Hardy as Winnie. This is the full 48 page programme as sold to theatre-goers at the time. All the usual details on the cast. $15.00

38 Churchill Funeral scrapbook
 This is a large 9.5 x 15 inch scrapbook, into which have been pasted a number of cuttings, mostly on the funeral, some in colour. A few later items added at the rear. Nothing really scarce here. $4.00

34 Fair Play for the Railways w Churchill quote
 This political leaflet produced by the Railway companies, undated, but clearly pre war. On the front cover is a 1928 quote from the Chancellor of the Exchequer, Winston Churchill: "It is the duty of the State to hold the balance even between road and rail." 14 pages, 5 x 8 inches. VG $12.00

39 Churchill's first speech 1897
 It is generally accepted that Churchill's first political speech was delivered at Claverton Manor, near Bath, on 26th July 1897 at a Primrose League event. See the first entry in RRJ. Here is a magazine article about Claverton Manor, which is now a museum, together with an old photocopy of the speech from the 1897 issue of The Bath Chronicle, along with the receipt from Bath Corporation which sold the copy to Wybrow for 3s 6d in 1961. Also included is Wybrow's handwritten transcription of the speech. $10.00

35 Churchill book catalogue from J. Bowey 1974
 This 20 page catalogue of Churchill was issued in 1974 by J. Bowey, bookseller. In reality this was Michael Wybrow using his first wife's maiden name so that his moonlighting would not come to the attention of his employers. Prices are ridiculous by today's standards, but Michael has written some editorial comments about rising prices pointing out that in 1940, you could have bought a dozen pre 1930 first editions for five pounds with change back. $5.00

40 They Used Firestone
 This 32 page book features photos showing wartime uses of Firestone rubber products such as tyres, selas, and mountings. the front cover is a photo of a Jeep carrying Churchill and Monty in the rear, on Firestone tyres of course. You have to wonder how Wybrow ever found this.... $15.00

41 "JOHN BULL" Portfolio of War Celebrities

The "JOHN BULL" Portfolio of War Celebrities, containing 16 mounted photogravure portraits, with biographical notes. Published 1914. The portraits are 5 x 7.5 ins, tipped onto A4 size sheets of dark brown card. The final portrait is the young First Lord of the Admiralty. All in a brown portfolio, printed orange with photo King George V on front. Authentic early ephemera. scarce. $100.00

46 Sales brochure for Stour, Randolph's house in Suffolk

This deluxe illustrated brochure offers for sale by auction, the home of the late Mr. Randolph Churchill, with 5 professional photos and a 2 colour map at the rear. Lovely grub, indeed. In one photo I can see 4 perfect copies of IN THE BALANCE, US 1sts in jackets, which Randolph edited.... $40.00

42 Churchill's Faith in the Bible

This short article appeared in the July 1943 issue of THIS CAUSE WE SERVE, published by The Covenant Publishing. An interesting comment on a subject seldom discussed. paper browned, edge wear. $18.00

47 Leonard Jerome's House and the Manhattan Cocktail

Bob Hasting's was obsessed with all things Churchill, and here is his file on the connection between the Jerome House and the drink. It appears that the Jerome house became The Manhattan Club, and this is where the drink originated. The file contains correspondence with the Bourbon Institute and the New York Public Library. $2.00

43 Dustjacket blurb on Europe's Fate 1947

This book by Gordon Sewell includes a blurb on the front of the dustjacket continuing onto the front flap which quotes some favourable remarks made by Churchill on a United Europe. Typical Gollancz book with purple on yellow dj. $3.00

48 Wedding invitation Mary Churchill & Christopher Soames

Mr. & Mrs. Churchill request the honour....an original invitation to the wedding at St. Margaret's Westminster 11th February, 1947. This invitation was for Mrs. Jack. Apparently stuck in a scarpbook, it is now torn from a rough removal. $9.00

44 The Churchill Hotel stationery folder

This deluxe portfolio for guests includes headed stationery, envelopes, note pad, post cards, telegraph blans and a book of matches. Undated, but I would guess 1970's. $5.00

49 Order papers marking Churchill's retirement 1964

Here are original copies of the House of Commons Order papers for 28th and 30th July, 1964, where a motion is made for the House to thank Churchill for his services and send a small committee to "wait upon the Right Honourable gentleman". It is interesting to note that this committee included his arch Labour foe, Manny Shinwell. The 30th July issue prints Churchill's response to the House. You could have had these for 10 shillings in 64, but now. $24.00

45 Churchill Songs 1990 at The Royal Albert Hall

The annual ritual at Harrow of Churchill songs became a major event at the Albert hall for the 50th anniversary in 1990. This deluxe glossy programme reports on past "songs" with Churchill's comments over the years. $10.00

50 Churchill Cancer appeal in MY GARDEN 1946

Ad on page 433 of the May 1946 issue of MY GARDEN has a photo of Churchill and a quote from a letter from him praising the work of The Royal Cancer Hospital. A very obscure item. $4.00

51 The Churchill Picture Medal sales leaflet

This sumptuous brochure describes the Churchill Picture Medal, issued by Toye, Kenning & Spencer in 1974. It looks like a thick bronze medal but contains a series of circular paintings within. 12 pages, colour printing. $4.00

62 PARADE Magazine European Victory Number 1945

PARADE was the British Forces magazine. This copy from the Middle east with prices in PT, Pmils, etc. This special number with thicker covers includes a picture of Churchill and the Royal family on the balcony on the first page, also picture "The Victory of the Common Man" with 1941 Churchill words. Lots of interesting articles and cartoons. Several pages torn, but no losses. $6.00

67 Navy Estimates- Parliamentary Debates 31st March 1913

This is the official report of debates in the House of Commons, usually referred to as Hansards. Churchill has a lot to say as First Lord of the Admiralty in defending his budget estimates for the Royal Navy. Lots of cut and thrust, but all very polite. 175 pages, blue wraps, rusted staples. $10.00

63 Private Eye Libel issue and retraction in newspaper

The great Private Eye Libel case. In the 8 Feb 63 issue, Private Eye made a number of negative comments about Winston and also about Randolph's biography of him. Randolph took the magazine to court and a legal landmark case resulted in a full page retraction being printed in the Evening Standard ( London's leading paper) on March 15th. Here are both the offending Private Eye and the newspaper with the retraction. Grovelling doesn't get any better. $25.00

Glossy brochure, high quality colour photos, published 1988. tells some of the history of Pol Roger and has a picture of the gift to The National Trust to replace the trees at Chartwell damaged in the big storm of 87. $8.00

78 Churchill in war cabinet, first day of war 1939, Daily Sketch

This original newspaper is dated 4 May 1939, announces that Britain is at war. Churchill's appointment to the cabinet is a sub headline and then described in an article on page 3. This is not a repro- paper well browned and "latest war news" in red ink. $20.00

74 Letter giving bearer access to Churchill during the General Strike of 1926

Here is an autograph note from Commander Locker Lampson, who was Churchill's private secretary in 1926 stating "The bearer, Mr. Britten Austin is the author of the article being set up "inside". Let him to see Mr. Churchill and talk his article over with him" signed O. Locker Lampson. This is the real stuff, not a souvenir. $20.00

This early portrait of a pre 1914 Churchill sat on the desk of his close friend Eddie Marsh for many years. Upon his death in 1953, Christopher Hassell gave this photo to Alan Jefferson, who has written a detailed explanation of the circumstances of its acquisition and giving it to Wybrow in 1973. This is an exceptional association. Image size 5 x 7.5 inches $250.00

75 Churchill poem in 1915 german book

80 GRIM GLORY, Pictures of Britain under fire

This book contains 109 photos of mostly blitz damage. The book is dedicated to Churchill and has a picture of him, Chalk cliffs in back-ground, with quote "We shall defend our island..... on final 2 pages. Interesting reading and some superb pictures $15.00

81 Collecting Winston S. Churchill, article by Bernard Farmer

This single page article is from the July 1958 issue of THE LADY. Mr. Farmer should be familiar to Churchill collectors as the author of the first Bibliography, preceding Woods by 11 years. $4.00

86 Wedding congrats telegram from Churchills

This colourful GPO telegram sent from Mr. and Mrs. Churchill on 12 Sep 53 to Mr. and Mrs. Shillingford on their wedding day. Lettice (Martson) was a secretary to the Churchill's for many years and met her future husband during an RAF station visit with Churchill. Back in the 50's, telegrams were special, more so than letters. This is the real thing from Lettice's archives, eventually acquired by Wybrow. $20.00

82 THE ISLAND RACE, salesman's sample

This was apparently used as a pre publication sample to solicit orders for this book. Wybrow was employed as a rep for a book publisher, so would have ready access to such an item. It consists of a complete dustwrapper, folded only once around a folder of green card, and inside a single sheet specially printed with 4 non consecutive pages to show the title page and several of the superb colour illustrations. Fine condition, completely genuine- you could not make this from a book. $75.00

87 Original letter to Churchill from Chairman of North Thames Gas 1956

This letter from the Chairman of the Gas Board responds to statements made about price fixing by the Gas Boards. Attached is a 5 page confidential statement from the Chairman about costs and prices. This is not a copy, is signed in ink. I have no idea how this came into Wybrow's hands. $50.00

83 TWO FIRST EDITIONS, 1959 article by Fred Woods

This 3 page article appeared in The American Book Collector for January 1959. Woods discusses in detail the publication history of "first" editions of Savrola and The Second World War, two works where the US editions came first. He includes lots of data on galley proofs, revisions, and printing quantities. Plenty of beef here for the serious collector. $40.00

88 The Young Hussar Comes Back

This is a single page article from THE SOLDIER of July 1956, showing a visit by the Colonel of the regiment (WSC) to The 4th Queen's own Hussars. I really liked the last picture "Nobody wore more medals on parade than the Colonel." $4.00

84 VICTORY DAY Souvenir programme 1946

This 4 page leaflet printed in red and blue gives details of the parade routes, pictures of the top leaders, travel and entertainment notes, and, of course, Churchill and the V sign on the front cover $12.00

89 letters between Fred Woods and Michael Wybrow

Here is an interesting exchange of letters from 1962. Wybrow had invited Woods to see his collection to assist in completing the Bibliography. Woods was unable to visit. Wybrow had sent a sample list of unusual books he had. Woods has marked this list up with "in", "out", or "add." It is a pity that Woods did not get there in time, as I can assure you that Wybrow had much that he missed. This gives an insight into the work of compiling this Bibliography. $30.00

85 Poster with Churchill poem

This is a well known poem "When half the world was deaf and mute you told of wrath to come; when others fingered on the flute you thundered on the drum". I believe this was written by Duff Cooper. Printed in two colours with decorative border, size 9.5 x 13 inches, highly suited to framing. $75.00

90 photo of Churchill and Lawrence on camels in Egypt

Here is an 10 x 8 photo of Churchill, T.E. Lawrence and a number of others sitting astride camels in front of the Sphinx and pyramids at Giza. Included is a letter from H.A. Redburn telling Wybrow of the source of the photo- a friend of Curt (Zoller) has the original negative and made this for him, etc., etc. $10.00

91 The Royal Academy Illustrated 1957
 This book illustrates a selection of the paintings from the 1957 Summer Exhibition at The Royal Academy of Arts. This year there was one painting by Churchill- Black Swans at Chartwell. 7 x 9.5 inches, coated paper, 96 = xxiv pages. I also have a few other years of this available. $10.00

96 Calendar of war Events- CBC for Valiant Years
 This 24 page booklet provides a brief chronology of the events of World War II. It was intended as a tool for viewers of the TV series Winston Churchill: The Valiant Years as broadcast by the Canadian Broadcasting Co. in 1962. Sponsored by Rothmans. 4 x 8 inches. $20.00

92 colour "painting" of Blenheim Palace
 At first glance this seems to be an oil on canvas. In reality, it is a print on textured board. Size 14 x 11 inches, produced by Prints for Pleasure Ltd. $16.00

97 1955 drawing of Churchill by Max Nauta
 This is a print of a drawing done at Chartwell in 1955 by artist Max Nauta. 8 x 11 inches. $35.00

 A menu from the Chartwell Grill at The Sir Winston Churchill (Hotel) Rochdale (Lancashire) pricing indicates early 70's. 10.25 x 12.5 inches on heavy textured stock, printed brown and red. Large image of Churchill on front cover. The Fillet of Plaiice is only 45p. $8.00

94 1944 party invitation in Edinburgh
 This invitation is from Sir William Darling, Lord provost of Edinburgh for a party in the Charlotte Rooms in that city in 1944. It incorporates a photo of the Lord Provost with Churchill during a visit to Edinburgh. The message is, of course, That anyone who got to satnd that close to Churchill must be a terribly important chap. 4.5 x 7 inches. $8.00

99 Churchill's speech to US Congress 19 May 1943
 Here is this famous speech to a joint session of Congress, as reported in The Congressional Record. These appear to be some sort of very old copies of the original 4 pages. 8.5 x 11 inches, paper starting to yellow. $5.00

95 Telegram from to Churchill to trainer after his horse wins, 1961
 Here is the original telegram with office stamps, dated 9 Oc 61 sent to major Carey Foster Crofters with congratulations after High Hat won the Winston Churchill Stakes at Hurst Park. $6.00

100 Duty Pass to State Funeral for Arundel Herald Extraordinary
 Here is the pass issued in the name of The Earl Marshall, Lord Norfolk to admit one of the officials to the State Funeral of Churchill, in this case, the Arundel Herald Extraordinary. 4 x 3 inches, this is the real thing, not a mass produced souvenir. $45.00

101    Large colour print of charge of 21st
Lancers at Omdurman

Here is a large colourful print of the Battle of Omdurman, 2nd September 1898, the decisive final engagement of The River War, in which Winston Churchill took part in the charge of the 21st Lancers, which is depicted in this print. No publisher noted, but this is an old print done by chromo-lithography using a number of different colour inks including a metallic gold. Most definitely not a modern four colour print. Image size is about 28 x 16.5 inches, mount is 32 x 22 ins., excellent condition $300.00
